Canvas Area	EduGenie Project Fit
1. Customer Segment(s)	Students, beginners, self-learners and learners revising academic/technical topics.
2. Problems / Pains + Frequency	Fragmented searching, difficult explanations, long notes, limited practice and uncertainty about learning sequence; mostly frequent during study/revision.
3. Triggers to Act	A difficult concept, large passage to revise, need for practice questions, or uncertainty about what to study next.
4. Emotions Before / After	Before: confused, rushed or uncertain. After: clearer understanding, actionable practice and a suggested next step.
5. Available Solutions – Pros & Cons	Search engines: broad coverage but fragmented. Static notes: trusted but not adaptive. Generic chatbots: flexible but not organized around study workflows.
6. Customer Limitations	Limited time, varying technical ability, ordinary laptops/phones and possible lack of GPU resources.
7. Behavior + Intensity	Search, ask peers, read notes and practice; intensity rises near assignments/exams.
8. Channels	Online browser, college/lab environment, personal laptop/desktop.
9. Root Cause	Learning information is spread across sources and is often not adapted to the learner's current level or immediate task.
10. Your Solution	EduGenie unifies Q&A, beginner explanations, summaries, quizzes and learning-path recommendations behind one lightweight web interface.
